Constitution of the Create: Project Blueprint SMP

Preamble

We, the members of the Create: Project Blueprint SMP, in order to establish a stable and orderly government, protect the rights and freedoms of our members, provide for the security and prosperity of the SMP, and establish a lasting framework for self-government, do ordain and establish this Constitution.

Article I — Fundamental Rights and Freedoms

Section 1 — Fundamental Freedoms

1. All members shall have the rights to freedom of speech and expression, peaceful assembly, petitioning the government, and participation in the affairs of the CPB Government.
2. Freedom of expression shall not be restricted solely because the government disagrees with the expression, subject to the Constitution and the reasonable rules established for the operation, safety, and community standards of the SMP.*
3. No government institution shall establish or enforce a religion, nor shall any member be denied participation in the CPB Government solely on the basis of religious belief or lack thereof.
4. The rights established by this Section shall not be interpreted as granting immunity from otherwise lawful moderation or disciplinary action.

* Server Rules: Freedom of speech and expression does not exempt members from the general rules of the CPB SMP. Speech or expression that violates the rules established in the official #rules channel, including rules concerning harassment, excessively sexual or inappropriate discussion, threats, or other prohibited conduct, may be moderated or punished according to those rules.

Section 2 — Privacy

1. Members shall have a reasonable expectation of privacy in communications and spaces intentionally restricted to a limited group of people.
2. Government officials shall not access private communications or private property without reasonable cause and, where required, an appropriate warrant or other lawful authorization.
3. Members' personal information, including IP addresses and location information obtained through server administration, shall not be intentionally disclosed or leaked.
4. The government shall respect the right of members to participate anonymously where such participation is permitted by the functions of the server.
5. The CPB SMP shall comply with applicable privacy and data-protection laws.

Section 3 — Due Process

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.

1. No member shall be deprived of membership, property, office, privileges, or other protected interests without appropriate due process.
2. An accused member shall have the right to know the allegations against them, present a defense, examine relevant evidence where reasonably possible, and receive a fair hearing before an impartial authority.
3. No member shall be punished more than once for the same offense, except where subsequent conduct constitutes a separate offense or where additional wrongdoing is discovered.
4. Punishments shall be proportionate to the offense and shall not be cruel or unusual.
5. Members shall have the right to appeal disciplinary and judicial decisions according to procedures established by this Constitution and law.

Section 4 — Property

1. Property contained within a valid personal or team claim recognized by the official server claiming system shall be considered protected property.
2. Government officials shall not confiscate, destroy, or otherwise take protected property except under circumstances authorized by law or this Constitution.
3. Property law shall apply to in-game property regardless of the member's ownership or possession of similar property outside the CPB SMP.

Section 5 — Equality and Governmental Neutrality

1. All members shall be entitled to equal protection of the laws of the CPB SMP.
2. Government institutions shall not improperly discriminate against members or restrict access to government positions on arbitrary or impermissible grounds.
3. Governmental decisions shall be made according to established law and legitimate governmental authority.
4. Nothing in this Section shall prevent reasonable eligibility requirements for government positions, licenses, or other positions of authority.

Section 6 — Weapons

1. Members retain the right to possess and use weapons subject to CPB firearms regulations and licensing requirements.
2. The government may regulate weapons according to their capabilities, range, availability, and potential danger.
3. Firearms licenses shall be issued by the FBIS according to regulations established by law.
4. Weapons restrictions shall apply to possession and use within the CPB SMP and shall not be based upon a member's ownership or use of weapons outside the SMP.

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.

Article II — Sovereignty and Government

Section 1 — Sovereignty

1. Ultimate sovereignty over the CPB Government rests with the Supreme Leader.
2. All governmental institutions and officials exercise authority delegated by the Supreme Leader or established by this Constitution.
3. The establishment of democratic institutions shall not diminish the ultimate sovereignty of the Supreme Leader.
4. The existence of elected offices does not transfer ultimate sovereignty from the Supreme Leader to the electorate or to any elected institution.

Section 2 — The Supreme Leader

1. The server Owner shall serve as the Supreme Leader of the CPB Government.
2. The Supreme Leader shall possess final executive and sovereign authority over the CPB Government.
3. The Supreme Leader may review, overturn, suspend, or reverse governmental actions, decisions, laws, regulations, and rulings where authorized by this Constitution or where necessary to preserve the proper functioning of the CPB Government.
4. The Supreme Leader may appoint and remove government officials where authorized by this Constitution or law, or where necessary to preserve the proper functioning of the government.
5. The Supreme Leader may pardon or commute lawful punishments in accordance with this Constitution and applicable law.
6. The Supreme Leader may delegate governmental authority to other institutions or officials and may reclaim or modify such authority where permitted by this Constitution.

Section 3 — Delegated Authority

1. Governmental institutions shall exercise only those powers granted to them by this Constitution, law, or lawful delegation.
2. Delegated authority remains subject to this Constitution and the ultimate authority of the Supreme Leader.
3. No official or institution may exercise authority outside its lawful jurisdiction.
4. The exercise of delegated authority by an official shall not be interpreted as creating sovereign authority independent of the CPB Government.

Section 4 — Government Institutions

The CPB Government shall maintain such governmental institutions as are necessary to administer the SMP.

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.

Major institutions shall include, at minimum:

- The Council;
- The FBIS;
- The FBOC;
- The Judiciary; and
- Local and national government offices established under law.

The government may establish additional institutions and agencies as necessary.

Article III — The Council

Section 1 — Establishment

1. The Council shall serve as the primary elected representative and legislative body of the CPB Government.
2. The Council shall exercise legislative authority delegated to it by this Constitution.

Section 2 — Eligibility

1. A candidate for Council shall have been a member of the CPB SMP for at least one month.
2. A candidate must be in good standing within the CPB SMP.
3. A member who is not in good standing shall not be eligible to serve on the Council.
4. Standards for good standing may be established by law and may include a member's disciplinary and criminal record within the SMP.

Section 3 — Elections

1. Council members shall be elected by eligible members of the SMP.
2. A member must have been part of the SMP for at least one week to vote in Council elections.
3. The election system shall account for the active population of the SMP and shall provide a defined threshold for election to office.
4. The precise electoral system shall be established by law.

Section 4 — Terms

1. Council members shall serve terms of approximately one to two months, with the precise term established by law.
2. No member may serve more than four total Council terms.
3. No member may serve more than two consecutive Council terms during a single season.

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.

4. A member who has reached the applicable term limit may become eligible for service again in accordance with the rules established for subsequent seasons.

Section 5 — Legislative Authority

1. The Council may propose and pass laws concerning matters within the authority of the CPB Government.
2. Unless otherwise provided by this Constitution, legislation shall require at least fifty percent approval of the required voting body.
3. The final voting threshold and legislative procedures shall be established by law, but no ordinary legislation may require less than a simple majority unless this Constitution expressly permits otherwise.
4. Legislation shall not become permanent law until it has completed the required legislative process and received the approval of the Supreme Leader.
5. A proposed law may take temporary effect where authorized by law while awaiting final approval or veto.

Section 6 — Removal and Vacancies

1. Council members may be removed from office by the Supreme Leader in circumstances authorized by this Constitution or law.
2. Removal may occur when necessary to protect the integrity or proper functioning of the government, including circumstances involving serious misconduct, loss of good standing, abuse of office, or other substantial cause.
3. A Council member removed from office may contest the removal through the applicable review or judicial process.
4. When a Council position becomes vacant, the vacancy shall be filled according to procedures established by law.
5. Where appropriate, the departing Council or applicable electoral authority may determine the successor to a vacant position according to established election procedures.

Article IV — Executive Directives and Emergency Authority

Section 1 — Executive Directives

1. The Supreme Leader may issue executive directives governing matters within the authority of the CPB Government.
2. Executive directives may establish rules without requiring a Council vote where such action is within the lawful authority of the Supreme Leader.

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.

3. Executive directives may be temporary or permanent, subject to this Constitution and any limitations established by law.
4. Executive directives shall not be used to permanently circumvent an express constitutional requirement for legislative approval.
5. An executive directive that conflicts with this Constitution shall be invalid to the extent of the conflict.

Section 2 — Emergencies

1. The Supreme Leader may declare an emergency when circumstances present a threat sufficiently serious to require extraordinary governmental action.
2. Emergencies may include circumstances comparable to those requiring a real-world nation to enter a heightened state of military or national readiness.
3. The CPB DEFCON system may be used to classify the severity of an emergency.
4. During an emergency, the Supreme Leader may exercise extraordinary authority as reasonably necessary to protect the SMP and restore normal governmental operation.
5. Emergency measures shall remain in effect only for as long as reasonably necessary, subject to any applicable time limits established by this Constitution or law.
6. Constitutional rights shall not be suspended merely because an emergency has been declared unless such suspension is expressly authorized by this Constitution or law.

Article V — Justice and the Judiciary

Section 1 — Judiciary

1. The CPB Government shall maintain courts or tribunals for the resolution of criminal, governmental, and other disputes as established by law.
2. Judges shall be appointed according to procedures established by the Supreme Leader, the Council, and applicable law.
3. Courts shall act impartially and independently within the authority granted to them by this Constitution and law.

Section 2 — Criminal Proceedings

1. Accused members shall receive notice of the charges against them and an opportunity to present a defense.
2. The specific charges against an accused member may be temporarily withheld for a period not exceeding two real-life hours when necessary to preserve public order, prevent interference with an investigation, protect evidence, or otherwise maintain the integrity of an ongoing investigation.

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.

3. Once the circumstances requiring temporary withholding have ended, the accused shall be informed of the charges.
4. Cases shall be heard by an impartial judge or tribunal.
5. FBIS may investigate and prosecute cases but shall not normally serve as the final authority determining its own cases.
6. In exceptional circumstances where an appropriate judge cannot reasonably be obtained, an alternative authority may temporarily hear a matter according to procedures established by law.

Section 3 — Judicial Punishments

1. Courts may impose punishments authorized by law, including:
    - Fines;
    - Imprisonment;
    - Removal from government office; and
    - Confiscation of property where authorized.
2. The FBOC shall administer and manage sentences involving imprisonment.
3. Administrative punishments, including warnings and other minor penalties, may be imposed according to law without requiring a full judicial proceeding where permitted.
4. Bans and timeouts from the CPB SMP shall remain under the authority of the Supreme Leader unless otherwise provided by this Constitution.

Section 4 — Appeals and Review

1. Members may appeal judicial or governmental decisions according to procedures established by law.
2. Appeals shall be reviewed by an authority with appropriate jurisdiction and impartiality.
3. The Supreme Leader shall possess final authority over appeals and constitutional questions, subject to this Constitution.
4. Governmental actions may be subject to judicial review where authorized by law or this Constitution.

Section 5 — Pardons and Commutations

The Supreme Leader may pardon or commute lawful punishments in accordance with this Constitution and applicable law.

Article VI — Federal Bureau of Investigation and Security

Section 1 — Establishment

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.

1. The Federal Bureau of Investigation and Security, commonly known as the FBIS, shall serve as the primary federal investigative, intelligence, and law-enforcement agency of the CPB Government.
2. The FBIS shall operate under authority delegated by the CPB Government and shall remain subject to this Constitution and law.

Section 2 — Powers

1. The FBIS may:
    - Investigate suspected violations;
    - Conduct lawful arrests;
    - Enforce server-wide laws;
    - Prosecute cases;
    - Gather and preserve evidence;
    - Obtain and execute warrants; and
    - Perform other duties assigned by law.
2. Searches, seizures, arrests, and other intrusive actions shall require a warrant or reasonable cause as required by this Constitution or law.
3. The FBIS shall not conduct arbitrary searches or investigations without reasonable cause.

Section 3 — Jurisdiction

1. The FBIS shall have jurisdiction over matters involving server-wide law.
2. The FBIS may investigate government officials who are subordinate to its lawful authority.
3. No local or subordinate government may investigate the Supreme Leader, the server-wide Council, or the FBIS itself except through an authority possessing lawful jurisdiction to conduct such an investigation.
4. Local governments shall retain authority to investigate officials and matters within their own jurisdiction.

Section 4 — Accountability

1. FBIS officials remain subject to this Constitution and the law.
2. Abuse of authority may result in investigation, removal, disciplinary action, or judicial proceedings.
3. An FBIS official who becomes a party to a legal dispute may be subject to judicial proceedings according to the same fundamental principles applicable to other members, subject to lawful exceptions concerning official duties.

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.

Article VII — Federal Bureau of Corrections

Section 1 — Establishment

The Federal Bureau of Corrections, commonly known as the FBOC, shall administer the CPB prison and jail system.

Section 2 — Duties

The FBOC shall:

1. Operate prisons and jails;
2. Maintain prisoners and correctional facilities;
3. Carry out lawful sentences of imprisonment;
4. Establish reasonable rules governing correctional facilities; and
5. Perform other correctional duties assigned by law.

Section 3 — Limitations

1. The FBOC shall not independently impose criminal sentences except where specifically authorized by law.
2. The FBOC shall carry out lawful sentences imposed by the courts.
3. Prisoners shall remain entitled to the applicable rights and protections established by this Constitution.

Article VIII — Local Governments and Countries

Section 1 — Local Government

1. Countries and other recognized local governments may establish their own governments, laws, elections, and administrative systems.
2. Local governments may choose systems ranging from democratic to autocratic, provided that their actions do not conflict with this Constitution or applicable server-wide law.
3. Local governments may establish offices, agencies, courts, and other institutions necessary to administer their territory, subject to server-wide authority.

Section 2 — Federal Supremacy

1. Server-wide law shall supersede conflicting local law.
2. Local governments shall retain authority over matters not reserved to the CPB Government.

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.

3. A local government may not establish a law or policy that conflicts with the Constitution or applicable server-wide law.

Section 3 — Jurisdiction

1. Local officials may investigate and govern matters within their jurisdiction.
2. Server-wide institutions retain authority over server-wide matters and over officials subject to their jurisdiction.
3. An official shall generally be subject to the authority of the governmental level to which that official belongs.
4. No local government shall exercise jurisdiction over a server-wide official or institution unless such jurisdiction is expressly granted by law or this Constitution.

Article IX — Elections and Representation

Section 1 — General Eligibility

Any member who has been part of the SMP for at least one month and is otherwise in good standing may seek elected office, subject to additional requirements established by law.

Section 2 — Voting Eligibility

Members who have been part of the SMP for at least one week may vote in elections, subject to applicable eligibility requirements.

Section 3 — Election Administration

1. Elections shall be administered according to procedures established by law.
2. The electoral system shall account for the active population of the SMP and shall provide a defined threshold for election to office.
3. Election procedures shall be established sufficiently in advance to allow candidates and voters to understand the applicable rules.
4. Election results shall be respected unless a candidate is subsequently determined to have been ineligible or the election is shown to have been materially invalid.

Section 4 — Campaigning

1. Campaigning shall remain civil.
2. Campaigning shall not involve harassment, threats, manipulation, fraud, or other conduct prohibited by law or the server rules.
3. Members may advocate for candidates, parties, policies, or other political positions provided that such activity complies with this Constitution and applicable rules.

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.

Article X — Amendments

Section 1 — Proposal

1. Amendments may be proposed by the Supreme Leader.
2. Amendments may also be proposed by a petition of at least three members.
3. The amendment process may include additional procedural requirements established by law, provided that such requirements do not prevent the Supreme Leader or eligible members from proposing amendments as provided by this Constitution.

Section 2 — Ratification

1. An amendment shall require approval by at least two-thirds of eligible voters unless this Constitution expressly provides otherwise.
2. Amendments shall be presented to eligible voters in a manner reasonably allowing members to understand the proposed change before voting.

Section 3 — Effect

Ratified amendments shall become part of this Constitution and shall have the same force as the original Constitution.

Article XI — Supremacy and Interpretation

Section 1 — Constitutional Supremacy

1. This Constitution shall be the supreme governing document of the CPB SMP.
2. Any law, regulation, governmental action, or local rule that directly conflicts with this Constitution shall be invalid to the extent of the conflict.
3. No governmental institution may claim authority solely from a conflicting law, regulation, or administrative action.

Section 2 — Constitutional Interpretation

1. Questions concerning the meaning or application of this Constitution shall ordinarily be resolved through the judicial system.
2. The Supreme Leader shall retain final authority over constitutional interpretation and disputes concerning the ultimate exercise of sovereign authority.

Section 3 — Severability

If any provision of this Constitution is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect to the greatest extent possible.

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.

Article XII — Administration and Technical Authority

Section 1 — Separation of Governmental and Technical Authority

1. The governmental authority of the CPB Government and the technical administration of the CPB SMP are separate functions.
2. Technical administration includes the operation, maintenance, configuration, security, and infrastructure of the SMP.
3. Technical administrators may take actions reasonably necessary to maintain the operation, security, and integrity of the server.

Section 2 — Relationship to the Supreme Leader

The server Owner may simultaneously serve as both the Supreme Leader and the technical administrator of the CPB SMP. The existence of separate governmental and technical functions shall not require those functions to be held by separate individuals.

Section 3 — Technical Emergencies

Technical administrators may take immediate action when necessary to protect the server, its data, infrastructure, or members from technical threats, regardless of whether the governmental process established by this Constitution can be followed immediately.

Such action shall not automatically constitute an exercise of governmental legislative or judicial authority.

Article XIII — General Provisions

Section 1 — Compliance With Server Rules

All members and government institutions remain subject to the official rules of the CPB SMP.

Where a server rule conflicts with this Constitution, the Constitution shall prevail.

Section 2 — Laws and Regulations

The CPB Government may establish laws and regulations necessary to carry out this Constitution.

Laws and regulations shall remain subordinate to this Constitution.

Section 3 — Effective Date

This Constitution shall take effect upon ratification according to the procedures established for its adoption.

Ratification

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.

We, the members of the Create: Project Blueprint SMP, hereby ratify and establish this Constitution as the supreme governing framework of the CPB Government.

Ratified on: 10/17/2026

Supreme Leader: CreateModFan12

Council / Ratifying Authority: Supreme Leader

This Constitution was ratified following the failure of the initial public ratification process to achieve participation.

 © 2026 Create: Project Blueprint SMP. All rights reserved.